WATER FAMILIAR THREATENED UNLESS CONSUMERS OBSERVE REGULATIONS

Belleville is facing a shortage of water, according to Manager E. T. Austin, of the waterworks department, if many rate is not exercised by the residents of the city. Not only are the residents facing a shortage the same as Toronto, but the waterworks department is seriously considering the possibility of the city and the supply, or in fact that is not done, the rate will be materially increased. A reporter of the Ontario Intelligencer obtained an interview with the manager and his remarks on the subject will set all serious minds to thinking.

HELP RELIEF FOR THE WEST

Conditions in the Canadian west are being helped by the Canadian Government with the support of the other two parties outside of the Government.

It is a condition which not only political parties but every citizen should realize. Some hundred thousand destitute farmers who have not food for themselves or their stock on account of the drought in the prairie provinces and the west. There has been talk of radical differences between east and west, but there are no of importance when the light of the conditions in which the westerners find themselves.

All people who back the government in its effort to make the conditions as much better as possible.

Vigorous action is needed and the Government can depend upon the support of the people.

The story told of the conditions by Senator Robertson, who merely indicates the extent of the national calamity in the crop failure. The appreciation of this is indicated in the earnest and hearty stand of the three parties in Parliament.

WATER LAWBREAKER

The law has gone on the breakers in regard to the indiscriminate use of city tapwater will be made to pay for it. The law is a lawbreaker in the sense that it is a law that is broken. There are some people who think that the law and the bylaws are fine things for keeping someone else in check, but are not applicable to themselves. Water lawbreakers are representative of a number who flout the law.

It is in this class that used up a good share of the missing one million gallons of water-works water on Dominion Day when families were shut down and there was little or no material left to use. The water was wild rampage these consumers went on, pouring out the city water "like water" according to the old adage.

The private consumer does not want to be faced with the bill for the water meter, which would be considerable. But the water supply has to be maintained from time at all costs even if the water has to be metered.

If those who waste water would obey the regulations, there would be no trouble. What are the findings? One pump was kept working all of the night but had no water to pump. Where was the water going? Upon investigation, it was found that the hour of nine o'clock, daylight time.

A million gallons missing!—Half the daily supply of the city wasted!

Consumers who are law-abiding—half the daily supply of the city wasted!

CONQUERING NATURE

Had nature a heart or mind, she might worry at the relentless chase by man to rob her of her mysteries and secrets, hidden ages ago. Wiley Post and Harold Gatty are in commencing the globe, have cut down the time of circling the earth to less than nine months.

ACCIDENTS

Domination Day was no more exempt from tragedy than any weekend or holiday of the summer season. The toll goes on.

The personal equation and failure of the machine explain the disasters which happen in air or on the highway. Drownings are different, accidents and carelessness play a considerable part.

A police officer speaking over the radio on Dominion Day said that out of the city and horrible fact that the death toll is certain to go up in the next few days.

people are hurrying to summer resorts away from the city and the heat. Here the personal equation enters the scene, those who holidays bent are apt to be more careless than those not seeking vacation. Tragedies seem all so unnecessary yet as the officer pointed out the chances are a fact—more people are going to die on the highways, be drowned in the rivers and lakes, than ever thought people knew this there is no possibility of this appalling state of affairs failing to happen.

HANKERCHIFFS

When you don't know what to give some body for a present, you generally wait a lot of time thinking, and then give them hank-kerchiefs. For this reason the poorest people can have as many hankkerchiefs as the richest without being any unhappy.

Hankkerchiefs with your initial in one corner are supposed to be more precious than bare ones, but if everybody in the world was suddenly richer, at least a million people would have hankkerchiefs with somebody's initials.

A lady in a hurry can take one of her husbands hankkerchiefs without attracting any attention, but if a man used one of his wife's hankkerchiefs in public he would soon be the other corner like a sharpshooter.

Fellows are generally asked 2 main questions by their mother about their hankkerchiefs: one being, Did you remember to take a hankkerchief? and the other being, Did you ever change your hankkerchief?

All answers should be aimed into a hankkerchief, but if a senease senase itself while you are not watching for your hankkerchief at least it proves your intentions was pure.

Hankkerchiefs have many other uses, such as to wave with, to dust off your shoes and other objects with, to tie together to make the tales of kites longer, and to kill flies by holding one corner and aiming with the other corner like a sharpshooter.

Was Playing in Shallow Water on West Side of Stream

Playing in shallow water below Cooper's dam, yesterday afternoon, Bobby Muirgrave, aged seven, was swept to his death in the Moira river, according to the autopsy this morning. The boy, who was a native of Scotland, had been playing in the water for some time when he was swept away. His father, James Muirgrave, was with him at the time.

The body of the boy was found floating in the water. The coroner, Mr. J. H. Macdonald, held an inquest this morning. The jury returned a verdict of death by drowning. The coroner said that the boy was a very bright and cheerful child. He was a native of Scotland and had been living in Belleville for some time.

INCITEMENT OF ARABS HINTED
Rabbi S. S. Wise says Mandate Not Carried

Dr. David, Jerusalem, July 4.—A sensation was caused at the Zionist Congress yesterday by Dr. Stephen S. Wise of New York, President of the Jewish Institute of Religion, who attacked the activities of the British Government under the Palestine mandate.

“I feel the present Government of England, on the tribunal of the Jewish people, before the moral conscience of the world as having tragically failed to fulfil its obligations under the Palestine mandate,” Dr. Wise declared.

During the speech, Dr. Chase wept, who retired this week from the Presidency of the Zionist movement, rose from the platform and walked from the room in the lobby, he explained that he was forced to withdraw because he considered Dr. Wise's speech, unsatisfactory and “irresponsible.”

London delegates sought to prevent Dr. Wise from speaking, but they were overruled by the Chair. Later, United States delegates, Dr. Guggenheim, headed by Louis Linsky, President of the American Jewish Committee of America, said Dr. Wise did not speak in the name of his group.

Dr. Weismann's speech is a few days ago quoted in a statement by the British Government. Dr. Wise asserted, “that my word will be a statement in the British Government. Whether it is necessary to meet existing England depends on whether we shall have a leadership which shall speak to England,” he added.

He said, however, that he offered no indictment against the British people themselves, and declared it was Lord Balfour, Lloyd George, Lord Plumer and General Smuts who represented the British people, and not Lord Balfour, Lloyd George, Lord Plumer and General Smuts who represented the British people, and not Lord Balfour, Lloyd George, Lord Plumer and General Smuts who represented the British people.

THE LOAN AND THE NEWSPAPERS

A Story of Intelligent Advertising

ON MAY 11th Premier Bennett announced the Dominion Conversion Loan with an objective of $250,000,000. On June 1st the Prime Minister announced that the Loan had been subscribed to the sum of $639,816,500 — an over-subscription of two and one-half times.

Canadian business men are familiar with the loan. They knew that the Government had sufficient assurance of large blocks of bonds to guarantee the objective. They knew that the real success of the loan depended on an over-subscription from the free flow of bonds in private hands all over Canada, which would come forth at the call of the Nation.

But even the most optimistic were hardly prepared for such a successful flotation as the figure which the Prime Minister revealed to the country in his budget speech.

The Conversion Loan was not merely a success, it was a success in the largest and widest measure.

The degree of response with which the loan was met may be attributed to scores of factors, but one of the very definite reasons for the smoothness and rapidity of the transaction, the readiness of the public, the lack of question, and the ease with which tens of thousands of small transfers were put through, lies in the application of the force of advertising in the daily newspapers of Canada.

The Government carried a series of clear-cut announcements in every daily newspaper throughout the Dominion. These in turn were supplemented by the individual advertisements of banks, bond dealers, and financial houses. The use of other media was inconsequential. Nearly all of the expenditure went into the form of advertising in Canadian daily newspapers.

Advertising made the work of the Conversion easy!

Advertising brought thousands and tens of thousands of small individual investors into the offices of banks, financial brokers and trust companies with their bonds.

What newspaper advertising accomplished in this particular instance it is accomplishing day by day for the whole fabric of commerce and industry in Canada.

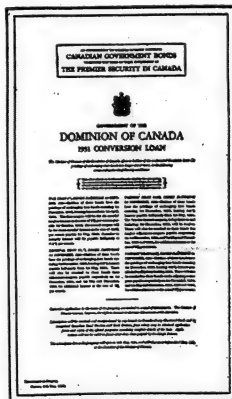

In this Dominion there is no substitute for newspaper advertising.

The geographic extent of Canada, its span of provinces extending over the vast breadth of a continent, its scattered population, its trading areas with widely differing business conditions, all tend to make the Canadian daily newspaper the one universal medium of information and advertising in this country.

This is why the newspapers of Canada occupy an outstanding position as the messengers of the Dominion's welfare and progress. This is why the successful national advertiser in Canada, without exception, looks upon the Dominion's skein of daily newspapers as his primary and indispensable medium.

Ask any recognized advertising agency,

The Dominion Government advertisement reproduced in miniature above, and those which followed it, were published in every daily newspaper in Canada, coincident with the announcement of the Dominion Conversion Loan, which had an objective of $250,000,000, and secured $639,816,500 within two weeks.

Vagabond Love

Good news for Tilden meant bad news for her.

"Don't tell me until after supper," she begged. "See the biscuits are just brown enough to serve."

He laughed indulgently, and she noted that his blue eyes were almost black with excitement.

"Sure," he laughed, Arkwardly, willingly he dried the knives at a sink and the plates. A blue lustre slipped from his hand and crashed into bits on the floor.

"Oh, golly, honey: I'm sorry, he sighed. "I'm just so excited — I don't matter," she answered with a dull voice. And it didn't fool him. "You don't need dishes if you haven't come."

He swept up the pieces, then took the knife by the arm and led her to the chestfield in the living room. He handed her a letter which she read through blurring tears. "I'm glad opening — regional man of expanding; radio business — quarters in Louisville, Kentucky."

It—Her baby, Lulu May, should be a vagabond, but have a home as grown up as an integral part of the community. As for herself, she would forget Tilden. Her home, Lulu May and work would absorb her time and energies.

That evening a letter came from her husband. Why hadn't she answered his last letter, he wanted to know and when would she be strong enough to make the trip to Kentucky? He missed her more every day, he declared. The new job was exciting, but the best thing he had ever gotten into, and he intended to stick to it. He had accepted the appointment, and arranged the furniture and gotten some new jester dishes like the ones he broke.

Louie came into the room. "You're awfully quiet," she observed.

Frances smiled. "Will you help me pack, please, Louie?"

MULTIPLY YOUR "SALES TALK"

By

6,500

If it were possible for you to deliver a five minutes "sales talk" personally, to each of 6,500 prospective customers.... it would take more than TEN WEEKS of continuous talking, at the rate of eight hours a day and six days a week. You could SELL a whale of a lot of merchandise under those circumstances, couldn't you?

Such a talk feat is, of course, impossible, but you can easily reach the homes of every one of those 6,500 prospective BUYERS with your sales message — Not once in ten weeks but EVERY DAY.....and remember those homes are occupied not by ONE customer but by an average of three and one half, which brings the actual number of prospective buyers of YOUR merchandise to more than 25,000.

The daily circulation of The Daily Ontario Intelligencer for the month of May, 1931, was approximately 6,500 copies. Do you honestly believe you can afford to overlook the sales possibilities of so vast an audience?

THE LOAN AND THE NEWSPAPERS

A Story of Intelligent Advertising

ON MAY 11th Premier Bennett announced the Dominion Conversion Loan with an objective of $250,000,000. On June 1st the Prime Minister announced that the Loan had been subscribed to the sum of $639,816,500 — an over-subscription of two and one-half times.

Canadian business men are familiar with the loan. They knew that the Government had sufficient assurance of large blocks of bonds to guarantee the objective. They knew that the real success of the loan depended on an over-subscription from the free flow of bonds in private hands all over Canada, which would come forth at the call of the Nation.

But even the most optimistic were hardly prepared for such a successful flotation as the figure which the Prime Minister revealed to the country in his budget speech.

The Conversion Loan was not merely a success, it was a success in the largest and widest measure.

The degree of response with which the loan was met may be attributed to scores of factors, but one of the very definite reasons for the smoothness and rapidity of the transaction, the readiness of the public, the lack of question, and the ease with which tens of thousands of small transfers were put through, lies in the application of the force of advertising in the daily newspapers of Canada.

The Government carried a series of clear-cut announcements in every daily newspaper throughout the Dominion. These in turn were

of advertising in Canadian daily newspapers.

Advertising made the work of the Conversion easy!

Advertising brought thousands and tens of thousands of small individual investors into the offices of banks, financial brokers and trust companies with their bonds.

What newspaper advertising accomplished in this particular instance it is accomplishing day by day for the whole fabric of commerce and industry in Canada.

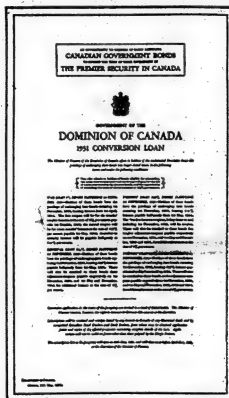

In this Dominion there is no substitute for newspaper advertising.

The geographic extent of Canada, its span of provinces extending over the vast breadth of a continent, its scattered population, its trading areas with widely differing business conditions, all tend to make the Canadian daily newspaper the one universal medium of information and advertising in this country.

This is why the newspapers of Canada occupy an outstanding position as the messengers of the Dominion's welfare and progress. This is why the successful national advertiser in Canada, without exception, looks upon the Dominion's skein of daily newspapers as his primary and indispensable medium.

Ask any recognized advertising agency.

The Dominion Government advertisement reproduced in miniature above, and those which followed it, were published in every daily newspaper in Canada, coincident with the announcement of the Dominion Conversion Loan, which had an objective of $250,000,000, and secured $639,816,500 within two weeks.

Cutting in is a Four-Fold Offence

The driver who cuts in and out of line on the highway:

1. Breaks the law.
2. Shows rank discourtesy to his fellow motorists.
3. Endangers his own life, limb and property.
4. Forces others to take needless and dangerous risks.

Even though you might be "lucky" it is really worth while, considering how little you gain by a practice so dangerous!

Have a safe season this Summer.

CAN HENS LAY GOOD WHITE EGGS ON BARLEY AS ON CORN? FOWLS IN TARIFF DISCUSSION

Tariff on Feed Corn Raises Discussion in Commons

MR. J. L. RALSTON

Ottawa, Ont., July 10 (By The Canadian Press)—The House of Commons today passed a resolution in support of the tariff on feed corn. The resolution, introduced by Mr. J. L. Ralston, of the Conservative government, was passed by a vote of 100 to 40. The resolution states that the tariff on feed corn should be maintained at the present rate of 100 cents per bushel. The resolution also states that the tariff on feed corn should be maintained at the present rate of 100 cents per bushel.

Mr. Ralston said that in the meantime the annual importation of feed corn into Canada had increased to 100,000 bushels. That meant an added cost of $100,000 to the poultry raisers of this country. The tariff on feed corn, he said, was a very important one. It was a tariff that protected the Canadian poultry raiser from the competition of the foreign poultry raiser. It was a tariff that was essential to the success of the Canadian poultry industry.

Robbers' Roost

By Zane Grey

Brooks of preceding installments of "Black Hawk," the recently featured of the star team, in last-day trials, gave a vivid statement in a court case which was given the name of Jim Wall. He told the jury that he was a member of the outlawed, and was a young fellow, and an expert marksman. He told the jury that he was a member of the outlawed, and was a young fellow, and an expert marksman. Consider the Roof it's CRITICAL!

Fire-resistance, Beauty, Weather-Wear are particulars that can't be overlooked.

It was the roof of the house that was the first thing that attracted the attention of the fire department. The roof was made of a material that was fire-resistant, and it was also very beautiful. The weather-wear was also a particular feature of the roof.

MARKET LOOKS AS IF SOLD OUT

New York, July 11.—The financial markets continued to drift today, but back, while reflecting some uncertainty, failed to indicate any definite trend. Wall Street still watched the influence of the bond of the Heineken bank to raise a large long-term credit, but did not in the least feel that any difficulty would be encountered in raising cash of German credit required.

A OLD SEA CAPTAIN once said, "Any windjammer can ride out a storm with the hatches battened down and the sails clewed up; but it takes a STEAMSHIP to ride out a dead calm."

Too many business men to-day are trying to meet a dead calm with hurricane - warning tactics. Huddling below decks, they clewed up their advertising appropriations with stout ropes of prejudice, battened down the hatches on their better judgment. One of these days they'll come on deck and wonder why they're so far from shore.

The steamship captain doesn't wait for trade winds to blow him into the Port of Profits. He masters those trade winds with the driving power of LIVE STEAM . . . piles fuel under his advertising boilers . . . starts his craft towards Profits and usually reaches port before the old-fashioned skippers have spread their sails for an occasional buying breeze.

Becalmed on a glassy sea to-day, business will eventually be favored by that buying breeze. But why wait for it? The powerful engines of NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING are ready and waiting to stir up the unruffled expanse of buyer-indifference. And fuel is cheap . . . much cheaper than marking time while some wiser navigator gets to port ahead of you.

St. Hon. Arthur Henderson, the British Foreign Secretary, is in Paris, presumably discussing German's situation, among other things, with the French Government. London, watching developments with anxiety, is preparing for the meeting of the Young plan experts on Friday at which plan will be dealt with the Hoover re-arrangement scheme.

Shortly after he arrived it was learned an auxiliary authority that the banks temporarily closed required to be opened to meet the mid-month payment.

Even the Democratic Union Nationalist party, which had been in opposition at the beginning of the week, is expected to be opened to meet the mid-month payment.

In the meantime the cabinet, dependent of meeting of the Young plan experts without inflicting a heavy blow, decided to plan to take a hand in straightening out the nation's financial affairs.

A N OLD SEA CAPTAIN once said, "Any windjammër cãn ride out a storm with the hatches battened down and the sails clewed up; but it takes a STEAMSHIP to ride out a dead calm."

Too many business men to-day are trying to meet a dead calm with hurricane - warning tactics. Huddling below decks, they clewed up their advertising appropriations with stout ropes of prejudice, battened down the hatches on their better judgment. One of these days they'll come on deck and wonder why they're so far from shore.

The steamship captain doesn't wait for trade winds to blow him into the Port of Profits. He musters those trade winds with the driving power of LIVE STEAM . . . piles fuel under his advertising boilers . . . starts his craft towards Profits and usually reaches port before the old-fashioned skippers have spread their sails for an occasional buying breeze.

Becalmed on a glassy sea to-day, business will eventually be favored by that buying breeze. But why wait for it? The powerful engines of NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING are ready and waiting to stir up the unruffled expanse of buyer-indifference. And fuel is cheap . . . much cheaper than marking time while some wiser navigator gets to port ahead of you.

"HIDDEN BALL" TRICK LOSES BRAVES GAME

Marionville Falls for Old-out of Tricks, Could Have Scored

ROBINS VICTORS

By (C) G. L. Talbot, Jr.
The world which, it is said, was a most successful campaigner at the time of the Boston Braves had long been known to fall for something as venerable as the "hidden ball" trick.

It was some other than the venerable Boston who was trapped by the oldest of baseball legends yesterday as the Cincinnati Reds were a brilliant 1 to 3 pitcher from the Braves, but for Marionville Jones, there might have been a different result.

Continued up to the ninth, after John O'Brien had hit the Braves to win this and to win for the season, the Boston pitcher, went to position to score the tying run. But he forgot himself, and instead of the bag and was caught out by the catcher, and the Braves won the game.

The Cubs pitched against a fine team, and only four hits of the Boston side, but scored the seventh and eighth runs, and the Cubs won the game.

The Boston Braves came back to score against the Cubs in the ninth, and the Cubs won the game. The Cubs won the game.

Shake Hands on this: It's Great to be CANADIAN!!

It's great to have a part in the development of Canada's resources. And it's great to share in the good things which Ontario produces... prime Burley tobacco, for instance... grown along Lake Erie, where soil and climate unite to produce a Burley leaf that sells no favours from any land.

Picobac is Ontario's own Burley, with the same marvellous flavour one always associates with the tobacco and other fruits grown in Southern Ontario.

—and don't forget, you get more tobacco for your money.

GERMAN POLICE QUELL RIOTS BANKS REOPEN

Government Believes Final Crisis Temporarily Met MEASURES TAKEN

Berlin, July 16 (AP)—The re-opening of the banks after a two-day holiday and the curtailing of the purchase of foreign currencies to help the German Government to cope with the situation, are measures taken to help it to meet a dangerous financial crisis.

All the same time alarm was felt over the spread of riot by communists and police through a large part of the Reich. At least one person was killed, a number were injured and many were arrested as police laid a heavy hand on attempts to create internal disorder.

Finance Minister Dietrich and a government broadcaster announced the latest measures to insure confidence in the economic situation of the Reich in a two-hour broadcast last night, appealing to the people to show a sporting spirit and get along smoothly in the new order.

All over the land riot intensifies and the police are being called out to quell the disturbances. In some places the banks would be opened but as the police were unable to control the crowds, the banks would be closed.

The government has decided that the sale and purchase of foreign currencies should be suspended until the situation is under control. The government has also decided that the sale and purchase of foreign currencies should be suspended until the situation is under control.

The vigorous, administrative work of the government has been going on against riot and disorder and against the spread of communism. The government has also decided that the sale and purchase of foreign currencies should be suspended until the situation is under control.

Summers that the printing press was being turned out in large numbers. In fact, the government has decided that the sale and purchase of foreign currencies should be suspended until the situation is under control.

The Flavour could not be improved upon

So now we have added the Sunshine Vitamin D to Quaker Corn Flakes

WE could not make Quaker Corn Flakes taste better. No one could. On every package we print our promise: "If you do not agree that this is the finest flavoured corn flakes you have ever used, we will remit you the cost of the package."

And we fully prove this matches flavor. This is wonderful crispness. It is the triple-rolled, waxy-rolled package. That is why Quaker Corn Flakes reach you with their own crispness.

Now we have added the Sunshine Vitamin D. It does not change the price of the package. It is a new feature which puts Quaker Corn Flakes in a class by itself as a health food. It is a new feature which puts Quaker Corn Flakes in a class by itself as a health food.

His Father's Treasure

By Jasper B. Sinclair

It is more of a fable than any other story of old Ben Williams and his farm up to the sun-baked hills of the old Province. Ben's farm, once his pride and joy, is now a barren waste of land. The old man, who had been a successful farmer, is now a beggar. He has lost everything he has ever owned. He is now a beggar. He has lost everything he has ever owned.

There were three sons. One was a farmer, one was a merchant, and one was a soldier. The farmer was the eldest, the merchant was the middle son, and the soldier was the youngest. The farmer was the eldest, the merchant was the middle son, and the soldier was the youngest.

The farmer was the eldest, the merchant was the middle son, and the soldier was the youngest. The farmer was the eldest, the merchant was the middle son, and the soldier was the youngest.

So the doctor recommended Eagle Brand for Baby George—as the foundation for a rugged body—as the nearest approach to nature's formula he could devise.

THE BIG FIGHT AT THE CANYON.

BEGINS SATURDAY

In the dressing rooms of the Cleveland Stadium, trainers are giving the two men on whom they have built their hopes last minute advice. Outside thousands of spectators have paid large amounts to witness one of the greatest events of the sporting world, the fight for the heavyweight championship.

The opponents, Schmeling of Germany, and Stribling of America are entering the ring to complete the final episode in their training—the climax of hard work—the big fight.

The reverse makes his announcements and with the warning, "See you out!" the ringing of the gong starts the smashing struggle for supremacy between the most evenly matched pair it could possibly be found, two men of perfect physique, each using every known ruse to gain an advantage over the other.

What those spectators at the ringside at the Cleveland Stadium saw, will be seen at the Capital City Stadium in Modesto when the full pictures of those memorable fifteen rounds arrive at the Capitol theatre. The graphic account takes many lovers of the cleanest example of the matchless physical strength—The Boston River.

The management have arranged for a special matinee on Saturday morning, at which the River the Capitol last night.

"Indiscreet" or more aptly titled "Obeying the Impulse," is a picture which will please everyone.
There is comedy, in plenty,—sometimes in abundance, particularly in the singing and acting delightfully abandoned.

Ben Lyon as the young author presents himself in a new light that of a dashing young author with a dash of the old-time adventurer and a dash of the adventurer sung off their feet.

Arthur Lake is refreshingly youthful as the straggling editor to the hand of the younger author, who, hardly notices him.

"There's a girl in every viewer" that a girl can be very hot headed then advised by a more experienced sister, particularly when that sister happens to know more about her fiance than she does herself.

Monroe Owsley, who, by the way, once appeared in a picture produced at the Trenton studios, portrays the man of the world who can become engaged to a dozen girls at once, to perfection. He possesses an apparent weak trait, yet the kind that some girls like particularly young flappers, and WFO 3-6 almost convince the female that black is white.

Their next move is to have the important cast of "Indiscreet" and tonight the ladies are going to flock to the Capitol theatre being Silverwax Gift Night, and those ladies, not to mention their male escorts, are going to be pleased with the entertainment on the theatre's screen.

"Campus Champs" a screamingly funny comedy is included on the programme which ends tomorrow (Friday).

Conviction were it never so excellent, so worthless till it converts itself into conduct.

FREE SILVERWARE

AT THE CAPTIO

A girl has an affair with a man and realizes him to be worse than the usual. She bids him good by and does not see him again until two years later when she learns that her younger sister is engaged to the wretch. She is stunned by the shock, and contrives to convince the man's family, that she would be unwise to allow their son to marry into a family in which there is a trait of insanity. Her actions to prove the insanity idea are a riot.

Such is the problem and attempted remedy perpetrated by Geraldine Trent, the role played by Gloria Swanson in "Indiscreet" which opened a three day run Gloria Swanson pays no heed to Monroe Owsley in "Indiscreet," her greatest picture, now playing at the Capitol Theatre daily at 2.30, 7.30 and 9.30.

QUARTETTE ARRIVED HOME AFTER STORMY LAKE PASSAGE

North Bay Men Steam Back to Port After Long Absence

North Bay, Ont., July 16 (CP)—

very surprised to find that any anxiety had been felt for their safety and that a search party would probably have been formed to scour the lake for traces of them, three brothers, Ernest, John and Victor Nordenskiöld and their nephews Joe Velliste, Copeland and Bret, arrived back at the city docks after an absence of a week. The four men left on Tuesday, July 7 for the west end of Lake Nipissing to pick berries.

They had a boat that they had bought new ribs and new planking and in which was installed an open automobile engine. To the critics of the boat did not look any too good, and when the men did not return by the end of the week, their relatives became very anxious.

They had a rough passage to Goose Island a week ago and encountered other rough weather during their stay. They picked about 15 bushels of blueberries, but there was a lot of rain that impeded their work. They ran out of gasoline and were unable to get any at the forestry station so hoisted sail and set out for a tourist camp where they could get more of the motor fuel. The party headed for home yesterday afternoon and were just outside the shelter of the island when a flood broke. The wind was directly behind them and the sea was running high. They decided to come on across the lake and arrived back in North Bay safely.

In 1920 51,863,913 pounds of live poultry and 200,884,574 pounds of dry dairy was sent into New York City.

MAKE SUMMER TRAVEL MEAN SOMETHING TO THE CHILDREN

(By Constance Cameron)

With the coming days starting to be hot and sunny, and the children beginning to get impatient to get out of the house, it is a good idea to make summer travel mean something to the children.

One of the best ways to do this is to make the children feel that they are going to have a good time when they go.

HIGHER TAXES EXPECTED IN 1932 UNLESS SALE OF GAS PLANT IS APPROVED BY VOTERS, SALE CALLED GOOD BUSINESS

Meeting at City Hall Last Evening Finds Citizens Endorsing Sale as Real Opportunity
Belleville is View of Record
COMPANY WILL PAY $7,000 TAXES

Ample Security Given City Say C. A. Cameron and J. Elliott—City to Take Mortgage on Entire Plant Within City Limits

Unanimity of opinion was expressed at the public meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in the city council chamber last evening that the sale of the municipal gas plant was the only step that the city should take. The speakers, all of whom were representatives of Belleville, from the standpoint of the financial group, agreed to purchase the plant, endorsed that wholeheartedly. Mayor Reid and Alderman Price, chairman of the gas committee, said that the sale of the plant would be raised in case the voters turned down the proposed sale.

The mayor pointed out that he did not want to see the tax rate raised next year two mills, but could see nothing else to do except the sale were consummated. The Bank of Montreal is pressing for settlement of a steadily increasing bill of $12,000, which is owing to the West Gas Company, and there are the annual payments on the debt of the city. The city has to pay $7,000 in taxes, and the rate has to be advanced to raise $8,410 for payment of gas debt and interest, which the earnings of the plant could not take care of.

Having a genuine interest in boys and girls, I read all the bachelorette ceremonies I could find in the newspapers.

Of these, I was especially struck by one where a waiting to devour youth as tribute.

That impressed me particularly.

Dr. Robert J. Trevelyan in delivering that bachelorette at the Centenary College Institute, Hackettville, N.J., recalled the fable of the "Minotaur"—that monster of ancient Crete which was sent the finest youths and the loveliest maidens to be devoured as tribute.

Modern life is like that, Dr. Trevelyan warned, and went on to say that "to enter such a life is like a life of hell."

LITTLE BENNY

By LEE PAPE

Pop was making his new cigar lighter by trying to fit it, and ma said, "William, I'm sure little Willie is going to be a literary man."

Meeting my friend Gladias baby, and pop said, Well, if he's now been to Shakespeare it won't be so bad. I know if he turns out to be a writer he'll be among the foremost of the best, because everything he does he does well, you should see him put on his little shoes all by himself, ma said. I never saw a more ambitious child. He could hardly crawl before he was straining every little nerve and sinew to walk, and now that he can walk like a trained pedestrian he's not satisfied unless he's climbing up on the top of the sofa, or the table, or the chair. This afternoon when Gladias bawled him around here, and the first thing he did was to climb up on the top of the sofa, or the table, or the chair, and making marks on a sheet of paper with his pen, he said, "The little devil, ha, ha, pop said, and he said, "That's what gave me the idea that he may have urgent lessons to do. Of course the marks he was making were very good of a zigzag nature, but the expression on his little face was as definite as it could be, in fact I'm sure he was trying to express some inexpressible little idea. In fact I had to take the paper away, but I had to when I realized he was marking on a half finished letter that you had left on your desk, she said. For Peets sake that's an important letter. I was an hour composing that to recompose it, but I know you won't mind contributing something to the beginnings of your grandsons literary career. I'd like to contribute a story to the most untypical portion of his anatomy. I can think of, pop said. Not meeting his hand.

AMUSEMENTS

"OLD PAVE GIVE"

The difficulty of timing for laughs in the making of a modern screen comedy is complicated by the circumstances of the comedians in the cast.

As a consequence, "Old Dave Give" Warner Brothers latest feature picture starring, Wanda Lightner and (recurring) Gene and Helen, which is the feature attraction at the Delta today and tomorrow, contains many of the new picture makers' peculiarities.

Warner Bros. picture makers' peculiarities are not the least of the laughs which the picture provides.

High-speed timing and fast lines were necessary to keep the tempo of the hilarious farce of full speed.

There's a little time for wits to let the audience catch up in laughing, yet it is so timed that no lines are lost and no situation left vague because of the pace of the action.

OBSCLETE CUSTOMS

There has been a general chorus in favor of the Bennett bill which makes it unnecessary for a member of parliament to go back to the electors when he is named to the cabinet. Everyone takes it as a step that is justified. Montreal Star explains why the old use is no longer necessary. "It had its inception in the days when Premier conducted affairs of State in a very different manner to what is pursued today, and when a Prime Minister was apt to pick and choose his lieutenants from the opposite side of the House if he wanted to do so—either for personal reasons or for reasons of public policy. It was deemed to be only just and right in such a case that those who had sent the selected member to Parliament should have an opportunity of saying whether they wanted him to serve a Government he had been selected to oppose. "Nevertheless, however, this sort of thing is unknown, save in the case of a Coalition Administration. There can be no necessity to ask a constituency which has selected its representative and sent him to Parliament if it thinks he is a fit and proper person to hold an office under the Crown. The obvious presumption is that if he were not so regarded he would not have been elected. The practice that resolves itself into a sheer waste of money and of time, and in some cases where an election has been very close and contested, it might easily result in denying a good man a mandate let him be a man of great ability to a less capable man with a safe seat."

BILLBOARDS

At one season or another the billboard has been in for an attack. At the summer season the presence of the billboard finding its message on the highways seems out of place and it is just such a feeling which has prompted many places to ban the billboard. In the United States the American Nature Association has been campaigning vigorously against the billboard in that country especially in California. Money has been spent in beautifying the roads and billboards come along to mar the advantage. Money has been spent to remove unsightly billboards. In Canada the billboard has been boasting its message across the landscape. In some places it has been placed in dangerous curves where placed at dangerous curves where there is nothing to distract the driver's attention from the attention he should be giving to the driving of his motorcar. In Canada and in Ontario the situation is a little different. The billboard is not so much a hand that crosses the line, but undoubtedly it is a hand that crosses the line. Some of the worst offenders are the billboards to eat and dine which clutter the roads and the vicinity of camps. According to the Hamilton Spectator, "One day the billboards will, undoubtedly, have disappeared before an aroused public."

BURNS' SOCIALISM

The anniversary of the death of Robert Burns has again been celebrated. There are anniversaries which do not attract general attention, but it is strange that the poets, as a rule, enjoy such honors without one dissenting voice. Why is that?

The poets are the trumpets that call to battle. They are in the phrase of the world the unacknowledged legislators of the world.

The world would not bother about Burns if he did not speak for the race. He speaks with primal emotions and he cuts through all the trappings of society and found expression for his socialism in "A man's man for a' that."

This song of his is the highest form of socialism, which is "ism" of the name has yet equalled. Burns saw human brotherhood as the elementary fact of life and his socialism was of the kind which is yet to usher in. This socialism is of the very essence of Christianity, it is unselfish, it is self-sacrificing.

Burns is like all other great poets, saw life whole. Poets are men of vision, men who walk the earth with an eye that sees and a heart that feels for all mankind.

Burns was in advance of his time and even this age in his social message and in his love of his fellows. Accordingly his message can never be "outwaded," never be out of date. It is as actual as the northern star because it is life. It is a man in his day, might have thrown bricks at Burns for voicing this brotherhood. Some men today, though acknowledging his greatness, still act as if they did not understand the truth of his message. They and their like will for many generations to come will be far behind the vision of the poet.

THE PRINCE

The Prince of Wales differs from the princes of other houses. He is the man of business, an ambassador of trade, he runs a ranch, he visits the parts of the great empire he will some day be sovereign of, he loves athletics and sports, and he makes a hole-in-one in golf. There was a day when such a prince might have been impossible but it is not so in this modern world. And the prince who makes so great a figure in sport is as democratic as any. He fought in the war and would gladly have served the full time with the men. The Duke of Windsor has trained up one who is a credit to British Royalty and to the imperial traditions of gentility. His Royal Highness is every inch a man with a man's interests in the world.

SIDELIGHTS ON GRAVE AND GAY

By Aime Michalis

Defeat! It is a word upon a page That those who deal in words must sometimes use; Unreal as any actor on a stage. A futile word to all who will refuse To give it significance or power. It is a word for daunting coward hearts, As empty as the drum that in an hour Of wild alarm still greater fears impart. Defeat! It has a sound I do not like, So on my life's close-written page I set. A line through its dark shadows and I take Away the error that would vex me yet. I never know or fear or own defeat. And so its hollow echoes must retreat.

BEAUTIFUL BELLEVILLE lies humbled in the dust—what a mess is the sign board some twenty or thirty miles west on No. 2 Highway, telling the world and the motorists who may pause to inspect, that Beautiful Belleville is lying in ruins. For they tell over and over again—that board was hit by a falling tree and demolished. Now it is up to the City Council to decide whether such a board is of any cash or sentimental or any other kind of value to Belleville before replacing it.

MACKENZIE ROBERTSON, who, with Mrs. Robertson, has just returned from a tour of England and the Continent, has the pleasure of shaking hands with Canada's High Commissioner, Hon. Howard Ferguson, in London. When that gentleman and Mrs. Ferguson held open house for all Canadians in London, there being about five hundred there. While in Rome, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and a party of Rotarians, in attendance at an audience in the Vatican by the Pope, and also were privileged to meet and converse with Mussolini, Italy's famous dictator. While in Vienna Austria, attending the International Rotor Convention, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, with the other delegates, were entertained to several functions in the palace of the emperor of Austria.

MILK PUND CHARITY, one of the finest benevolent enterprises in the world, the object of which is to provide pure milk to the many undernourished children of the New York City slums, profited from the late Jack Sharkey's victory. Walker, fighter, or fitter, or what have you, by the sum of fifty thousand dollars. She drew down $53,628 for his share and Mickey Walker $42,400. His receipt was $233,356 contributed by 30,588 citizens, and thousands waited outside of the gates at Elbert Field that night until the prizes were materially reduced before paying admission. Walker made such a good showing against his heavier adversary that there is talk of a return match. Sure, Sharkey and Mickey can make another nice piece of change by a return bout, any time, neither having been damaged in their friendly cuffing match, nothing having suffered save Sharkey's reputation, and that under a position of sixty thousand dollars and prospects of a return match is mending rapidly. Since pugilism became a matter of big business and plenty money it has acquired all the trappings of high pressure salesmanship. Better scraps can be seen in the armchairs at Belleville than the so-called championship bouts of the big boxing trusts.

BELLEVILLE'S BIG FAIR is coming nearer and committees are hard at work getting ready for the big show which promises this year to eclipse all former efforts with more entries and a program so attractive that no one with the pride of the Bay of Quinte district in their own craft to stay away. Every one should get their share of making this annual exposition of the progress and prosperity of the district the biggest and best party, if only by helping to swell the attendance.

"Jack—said he'd kiss me or die in the attempt." "Excuse! And did you let him?" "Well, you haven't seen his funeral notice, have you?"

Still another Myrna, long a stellar silent picture, and one of the finest of the first generation, offers her prominent picture personality of the Franklin Pangloss star who is seen in "Heads He Wins."

Charles O. Berry, several years at the theatre, Los Angeles, reports a big success for "A Lady Surrendered" of the dramatic play by Stahl, one of the best on and produced

The story tells Bert Carter, who has already been to war literary fame while the hero relays her little hard through sacrifice and hard work. Apparently she has lost the love of her life, and now she calls the call of the heart, can draw him back to her side and the children's partner of some middle years in 73 years pay the price of her theories.

The underlying idea of the book is never far from the screen and yet there are no arguments offered, pro or con. You are more interested in what is happening than in why it is happening, because the story is strongly human and simply beautiful in its simplicity of thought and expression.

RAINY WEIRD DANCE

Seven stars in a simple talking picture! Such is the remarkable array of talent assembled by Carl Laemmle, Jr., of Universal, for "A Lady Surrenders" the pictureization of John Erskine's best selling novel, "Sincerely" which comes to the Capitol Theatre today (Silverware Lift Night) and remains over Friday.

The cast of the production reads like a blue-book of stage and screen. Conrad Nagel, one of the most popular actors in the talking cinema, has the role of the husband whose novelist-wife is bored by married life.

Genevieve Tobin, who went direct to Broadway stage success, "Fifty Million Frenchmen" and "The Great Waltz," makes her screen debut in "A Lady Surrenders," appears as the wife's best friend, Rose Hobart, famous for her many stage roles, among them "Death Takes a Holiday," is seen as the smart, sophisticated temptress.

Basil Rathbone, a famous stage favorite before he came to talking pictures a year or so ago, has one of his characteristic roles as a charming Frenchman with whom the wife has a fling in love.

In this brilliant cast are also Vivian Oakland, headlined for years over the biggest vaudeville circuits, and a big success, as well in talking films, among the latest being "The Florsdora Girl."
